

Carm Capriotto LONG BIO

Carm Capriotto, AAP, is a connector of aftermarket professionals. Carm is the founder and host of Remarkable Results Radio, the premier industry podcast. His learning library is rich with successful aftermarket professionals sharing their unfiltered, honest and sincere stories each week.

These 'voices of the aftermarket' share their expertise, best practices, and stories of personal achievement; all through the on-demand technology of podcasts. Carm is proud to help thousands of aftermarket professionals achieve their own remarkable results.

Carm admires the extremely successful service professional. "There is an entrepreneurial spirit there that makes them stand out." As an award-winning aftermarket podcaster, he has not only spotlighted the hard-working service professional, he has interviewed aftermarket business coaches, trainers, technicians, educators, students, association executives, female shop owners and husband and wife shop owners. Carm says 'It's like 60 minutes meets NPR'.

The podcast content library is alive with interviews each week. Each entrepreneur interview talks about the unfinished journey as they continue to march toward higher goals. And the single subject Town Hall Academy brings a collaborative view of trending topics and key business issues to the forefront. The Academy is led by industry colleagues who have a passion for the weekly theme. The For The Record Podcast is a weekly opinion from the essential voices of the aftermarket.

In January 2019 2018 Remarkable Results Radio Podcast reached the 500th episode milestone and in 2017 Carm was honored with the 2017 Mort Schwartz Excellence In Education Award from the Auto Care Association.

In January 2018, episode 172 that featured Giuliano Zuccato, 'The Mustang Man' was honored as the Motor Press Guild Audio Podcast of the year. Carm Accepted the honor at the Petersen Museum in Los Angeles.

In May 2018 Carm was recognized by the Automotive Service Association, ASA, as the Communicator of the year.

Carm is a career member of the automotive aftermarket. He held many roles, from executive positions to company president.

He says, 'I care about building a stronger aftermarket and love bringing likeminded people together that seek knowledge in a way that is easy to digest in their day to day life.' Learning every day is the vitamin for growing success. Remarkable Results Radio is a conduit for information, training and insights for all aftermarket service professionals.
